

June Schedule of Services

June 7 – 10 a.m. (one service only)

Pastoral Care: A Ministry of Hope—Rev. Dr. Alicia Abell

As individuals and communities we are often called upon to support others in their time of need. We will explore how we make significant connections we make by our presence and by the things we do. Together we will define what pastoral care means to us and help each other to realize what we are already doing to make a difference in the lives of people in our community.

Alicia is an ordained Presbyterian Minister providing pastoral care for the Orick Community and for Hospice of Humboldt.

June 14 – 10 a.m.

Poetry Share

Please come and share with others what poetry is meaningful to you.

June 21 - 10 a.m.

The Problem of Evil—Stephen Sottong

What do free will, prophets preaching repentance, Christian Apoclypticism, and Gnosticism all have in common? They're all ways of explaining why, if God is good, there is evil in the world. We'll discuss the historic answers and contemplate a Unitarian-Universalist response.

June 28 – 10 a.m.

Wellness in Community—Maryilyn Pennekamp

We will address what nurtures and sustains our sense of wellness beyond pastoral care, along our life cycle. We will explore what connectedness means to us and those we care about. Through her years of experience working in diverse communities, Marianne has experienced the basic building blocks that help create and sustain the perception of, and the reality of being in community. This will be an interactive service respectful of all points of view.
